DEATH ON THE TRACK

N. D. Green Struck By Train Lives But Short Time

Train No. 209 coming into Aurora the first of the week struck N. D. Green, a section man, bursting his head and breaking several ribs.

He was picked up unconscious still breathing, placed on a stretcher and brought in to Aurora by the train that struck him.

The Missouri Pacific surgeon was instantly sent for, but his services were of little use as within five minutes life had gone out.—Aurora Argus.

ATTEMPTED THEFT

Arthur Lee was arrested at the Frisco depot Wednesday night charged with attempting to purloin a suit case belonging to Mrs. Wilbanks. The suit case was missed by the owner as she was preparing to leave on the train for Kansas City, a search revealed it hidden under the platform. It was returned to the owner and an old one substituted. Then Marshal Horn watched over the substituted case until Lee came to take it away. Lee was then arrested. He claimed he saw another person deposit the case in concealment and came to investigate.—The Sarcoux Record.

ARBOR.

Winter made us a call the other day and it is hoped he will not stay long.

The Arbor community have sustained quite a loss by the marriage of the pastor, Rev. T. M. Holcomb. However he will return to fill his regular appointments from time to time and we hope will bring his bride, who also is a devoted Christian worker. All wish them much joy and a long life.

D. P. Arnold and family were guests at the wedding near Phelps last week and remained in that community over Sunday to attend the quarterly meeting held there.

B. C. Wolfe is making still other improvements on his place by building a smoke house and corn crib.

The Salvation Army are having Friday night prayer meetings. They also had a service Sunday night at Mr. Ware's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Underwood are the parents of a fine baby girl.

Mrs. D. P. Arnold left Tuesday night for Donnellson, Ill., where she will spend a few weeks visiting relatives and friends.

The foundation for the church is in and is two feet high.

From The Leader.
Miss Kate Collins resigned her position at Newman's this week to accept a position in the Missouri Baptist Orphans' Home of St. Louis.

Mrs. Mary Vinso, of Newton, Kansas, came in last week on a visit to relatives and friends here. She is making an effort to have her son, John, paroled out of the penitentiary at Jefferson City.

Mr. Will Gatewood is in St. Louis looking after the interest of his adding machine.

Miss Rachel Johnson has returned to Hastings, Neb., after a pleasant visit of some weeks with home folks here.

Mr. T. R. Hopkins says he has a peach tree in his orchard that he picked ripe peaches from last week. This is another evidence of the glories of Southwest Missouri.

MENDON

Mrs. John Bandy is on the sick list.

Sam Shipman is making arrangements to build right away.

Mr. Grissom and wife called on Tom Benbrook and wife last Sunday evening.

Frank Hunnel is able to get around again a little.

Mr. Richardson and wife spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunnel.

Mr. Scott is putting up a new corn pen.

Mr. Grissom and wife spent Monday at the home of her father, Peter Zinn. While there Mr. Grissom butchered a nice fat hog for them.

Geo. Mulkey is digging a cellar and building a new smoke house.

The ladies aid met this week with Mrs. Laura Cox.

Henry Matlege is not doing as well as thought for at first. He is still in a serious condition.

Pate Anderson's little boy has about recovered from his recent sickness.

Charlie Schoen lost a very nice horse a few days ago.

Mr. Cramer lost a good cow by getting her head fast in a wagon wheel and breaking her neck.

The protracted meeting did not commence at the Methodist church last Sunday as was expected. It was put off until next meeting day, that being the second Sunday in next month.

Frank Hunnel and wife spent Thursday at her father's.

The friends and relatives have Mr. Nobody's entire sympathy in the death of Grandma Moody.

Cassville News.

From The Republican.
Sheriff Newman sold the unsold portion of school lands in section 16-23-25 and in section 16-21-29, at public sale here Saturday. Thirteen forty's were sold at $1.25 per acre.

Loren McCoy, who has been in the west for four years, is visiting his parents near Monett this week. He was in Cassville Friday. Loren left Sunday for Chicago to take a course in a School of Auctioneering.

Mrs. Zettie Crumley of Monett has been at the home of her grandfather, Jas. Brandt south of town, for two weeks.

McDowell has been granted a rural free delivery mail route to go into operation about January 1, 1910. The route will be about 24 miles in length and will accommodate more than one hundred families. It will supply the country to the southeast, east and northeast.

With one or two exceptions the civil docket of this session of the circuit court was completed Tuesday, and the criminal docket was begun Wednesday morning. The criminal docket will be short. There are a number of equity cases, thirty-two divorce cases and one or two important civil cases yet to be tried or otherwise disposed of at this term.

Ebenezer.

Jack Frost is here again. Everybody enjoys the heating stove with a good fire in it these days.

Sunday School was well attended Sunday as usual.

Rev. Qualls preached two interesting sermons at Liberty Sunday to attentive audiences.

As Andy Armstrong and family were going from Ebenezer to Liberty Sunday, a bolt of the buggy broke letting the fore part of the bed fall and throwing them all out. They were all injured some but not seriously. The horse being gentle did not run away.

A number of the neighbors called at the home of B. C. Wolfe Thursday and helped him erect a corn-bin.

Mrs. Ella Campbell, of Jet, Okla., is visiting relatives in this community this week.

This neighborhood is still improving. Clarence Anderson has built him a new barn and J. B. Foster has built an addition to his barn.

It is reported that Fred Wolfe is learning to sing his favorite song being:

"Through many dangers, toils and snares;

Toward Beckett's I have roamed,

'Twas Grace that I have sought thus far

And Grace that I'll take home.

The protracted meeting at Liberty will commence on the second Sunday in December. Rev. L. A. Smith will assist Bro. Qualls in the meeting.

Mr. Scott Brite has been working the road north of the Bonnie View School House. If he receives the proper number of congratulations on this work he expects to run for road-overseer at the next election. Won't some one please brag on it for Billie Brine thinks "Hustler" would make a good one.

The friends of Uncle Wes. Mulkey and Aunt Mariah Taylor will probably be surprised to hear of their marriage which was solemnized at Mt. Vernon, Nev. 17th. This is one of the oldest couples ever married in our neighborhood, their age being respectively 67 and 68 years. Their many friends wish them happiness the remainder of their days.

Little Willie Conrey, son of Wm. Conrey is very sick.

BILLY BRINE.

Croup Cured and a Child's Life Saved

"It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to that of the thousands who have been benefited by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My child Andrew, when only three years old was taken with a severe attack of croup, and thanks to the prompt use of Chamberlain's Remedy his life was saved and today he is a robust and healthy boy," says Mrs. A. Coy, Jr., of San Antonio, Texas. Thousands of mothers keep it at hand, and it has never been known to fail. For sale by all druggists.
